

I M S Policy

GEING Krebs und Kiefer international and other LTD and Laboratory for tests for geomechanics, construction materials and environment "GEING KuK" is committed to providing reliable, timely and financially acceptable primarily high quality engineering and consulting services to its clients in the area of geotechnics, hydrotechnics, road infrastructure, energy, mining, environmental protection, laboratory testing and other areas of construction both in Macedonia and the neighboring markets.

The implementation of the defined strategic goals is through implementation of best available technics and technologies, international standards, modern methods of environmental protection measures and specific safety and health at work.

In defining its business policy, management GEING / Laboratory for tests for geomechanics, construction materials and environment "GEING KuK" sets goals for quality, environmental and health and safety at work which implementation can achieve through continuous improvement measures and reviewing them under the Integrated Management System – IMS (ISO 9001, ISO 14001, OHSAS 18001 i ISO 17025) and compliance with the regulations and ethics in the field of laboratory testing, environmental protection and safety and health at work. Realizing the objectives are implemented with detailed planning and sustainable optimization of operational costs which is a constant goal and task of every employee.

Professional work and commitment of management GEING and laboratory for tests for geomechanics, construction materials and environment "GEING KuK" demonstrates itself through constant concern for education and training of employees clearly defined responsibilities in the execution of tasks in order to effectively perform existing and new methods of testing and giving an opportunity to the user to choose different scopes of testing. This provides profit, liquidity and safety of employees and better social status.

All risks for employees, guests and visitors are assessed and with established preventive measures and protection, are reduced to an acceptable level.

The implementation of all phases of the operation processes, GEING and laboratory for tests for geomechanics, construction materials and environment "GEING KuK", follow all regulations and standards applicable to the construction area, laboratory testing, environmental and health and safety at work, analyzing, managing and eliminating all real and potential negative impacts of activities, products and services.

Maximally transparent and open dialogue with the employees and the public allows us to present all of its achievements in the field of construction, laboratory testing, engineering and environment.

The preventive activities to protect the environment, injury and ill health of the employees and quality laboratory testing is the primary task and principle of the management.

Skopje,

24.04.2013